Reflections

Our hearts long for a tap on the shoulder from someone who is unafraid of our suffering and shame.

– Dan Allender

We ninety-nine obedient sheep;
we workers hired at dawn's first peep;
we faithful sons who strive to please,
forsaking prodigalities;
we virgins who take pains to keep
our lamps lit, even in our sleep;
we law-abiding Pharisees;

we wince at gospels such as these.

– Julie Stoner

published in First Things, June/July 2009

We of the churches often gather our robes away from contamination, and thank God that we are not as other men. We don't despise God's name; in fact, we call upon it constantly to justify ourselves.... If we object to meat-eating, we declare that God is vegetarian; if we abhor war, we proclaim a pacifist Deity. He who turned water into wine to gladden a wedding is now accused by many of favouring that abominable fluid grape juice. There can hardly be a more evil way of taking God's name in vain than this way of presuming to speak in it. For here is spiritual pride, the ultimate sin, in action—the sin of believing in one's own righteousness. The true prophet says humbly, "To me, a sinful man, God spoke." But the scribes and Pharisees declare, "When we speak, God agrees." They feel no need of a special revelation, for they are always, in their own view, infallible. It is this self-righteousness of the pious that most breeds atheism, by inspiring all decent, ordinary men with loathing of the enormous lie.

– Joy Davidman

Smoke on the Mountain

Common sense tells us that this forgiveness, totally free for us although it cost the Son of God his life, is too good to be true. Our conscience tells us to find something in ourselves to justify us—works, repentance, a "state of grace," or an infusion of the life of Jesus. And it is true that all these things will be present in the soul which exercises justifying faith. But all are virtually impossible unless the heart's deepest foundation is a grateful acceptance of the free gift of the Messiah's righteousness. Common sense, our misguided conscience, and our pride must be replaced with total reliance on the Messiah for our acceptance with God.

Call to Worship

Psalm 103:1-5

Praise the Lord, my soul;
all my inmost being, praise his holy name.
Praise the Lord, my soul,
and forget not all his benefits—
who forgives all your sins
and heals all your diseases,
who redeems your life from the pit
and crowns you with love and compassion,
who satisfies your desires with good things
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

¹ As a courtesy, please program all communication devices to silent mode. Thank you!

Scripture Reading

Matthew 6:31-34

So do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Confession of Sin

Minister & People:

Father in heaven, we come to you today admitting that we would be hopeless had you not sent your Son into the world. We need you to come and rescue us, for we cannot rescue ourselves. We need you to stoop to our level, for we could never attain yours. We need your Son to have died, so that we might live.

So we come confessing our need for you. We confess that we have sought to be our own rescuers, our own saviors. We have tried very desperately to make our lives work without your grace. This has left us anxious, hardened and fearful. We now run into your arms, asking you to make us whole.

Receive us, we pray, for Jesus' sake and in His name we pray!

Private Confession and Reflection

Words of Encouragement

Ephesians 2:8,9

For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God— not by works, so that no one can boast.

Song of Thanksgiving

Jesus! What a Friend for Sinners!

The Peace of God and Announcements

Minister: The peace of the Lord be with you!

People: And also with you.

If parents prefer, children 4 years old – 2nd grade are invited to attend Children's Church in the Education Building at this time.

The Prayers of the People (concluded with the Lord's prayer)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen!

The Offering

The offering is a way for members and friends of Grace Church to support the church's mission and ministry. If you are our guest today, please feel under no compulsion to give.

Scripture Reading

Romans 3:21-31

21 But now apart from the law the righteousness of God has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify. 22 This righteousness is given through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference between Jew and Gentile, 23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, 24 and all are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus. 25 God presented Christ as a sacrifice of atonement, through the shedding of his blood—to be received by faith. He did this to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished— 26 he did it to demonstrate his righteousness at the present time, so as to be just and the one who justifies those who have faith in Jesus.

27 Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. Because of what law? The law that requires works? No, because of the law that requires faith. 28 For we maintain that a person is justified by faith apart from the works of the law. 29 Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles too? Yes, of Gentiles too, 30 since there is only one God, who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through that same faith. 31 Do we, then, nullify the law by this faith? Not at all! Rather, we uphold the law.

RIGHT WITH GOD THE LETTER TO THE ROMANS

COMMUNION

Guidelines for Reception of Communion

Communion is a family meal for Christians. We welcome all committed followers of Jesus Christ to partake of this sacrament: those who are baptized members of a congregation which proclaims the gospel, who are at peace with God and with their neighbor, and who seek strength to live more faithfully for Christ. If you are not a Christian, or if you are not prepared to share in this meal, we encourage you to spend this time in prayer using the prayers that follow as guidelines. We hope that this time is helpful as you consider your relationship with Jesus Christ, and with his people, the church.

The Great Thanksgiving

Minister: Therefore, lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up to the Lord!

Minister: Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise!

Song of Communion

There is a Fountain Filled with Blood

Prayer of Consecration and the Words of Institution

Prayer for those not communing:

Prayer for Covenant Children (Not Yet Confirmed)

Lord Jesus, thank you for placing me inside your family, the church. Help me more and more to know you, to love you, and to follow you as your faithful disciple. Amen.

Prayer for Those Searching for Truth

Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth and the life. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open to me the reality of who you are. Grant that I might be undaunted by the cost of following you, as I consider the reasons for doing so. Give me an understanding of you that is coherent, convincing, and that leads to the life that you promise. Amen.

Prayer of Belief

Lord Jesus, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but, through you, I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared to hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross and offering forgiveness and new life. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior. Amen.

Prayer for Those Struggling with Sin

Lord Jesus, grant that I may see in you the fulfillment of all my needs, and may turn from every false satisfaction to feed on you, the true and living bread. Enable me to lay aside the sin that clings so closely, and run with perseverance the race set before me, looking only to you, the author and finisher of my faith. Amen.

Prayer of Commitment

Lord Jesus, you have called us to follow you in baptism and in a life of committed discipleship in your church. Grant that I may take the necessary steps to be one with your people, and live in the fullness of your Spirit. Amen.

Distribution of the Bread and the Cup

Grace Presbyterian uses wine in the celebration of Holy Communion. If you prefer non-alcoholic grape juice, please take a cup from the outer circle of the tray. Gluten-free wafers are provided in cups in the center of the cup trays. Please hold the elements until all have received so we can celebrate this meal together.

Song of Commitment

The Love of Christ is Rich and Free

Benediction²

Philippians 4:19,20

My God will meet all your needs according to the riches of his glory in Christ Jesus.
To our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Dismissal

Minister: Now, let us go forth to serve this community and the world as those who love our Lord Jesus Christ.

ALL: Thanks be to God!

The pastoral staff and other church leaders are available following the service to pray with you or to answer your questions about the Christian faith or Grace Church.

² The benediction is much more than a wish or even a prayer. It is a renewed ordination of the people of God to their service to each other, to their community and the world. God declares his own favor toward his people.

RIGHT WITH GOD

THE LETTER TO THE ROMANS

_____ Community Group Questions _____

1. How does the “but now” change everything? How does the last section leave us? How does this section introduce hope?

2. What can we do about the situation that Paul describes in the preceding verses? What does God do?

3. What is a good definition of righteousness? How is God’s righteousness not just displayed but granted? What are the four ways that we receive God’s righteousness?

4. What are the ways that we turn faith into a work? What is faith? Are we declared righteous through or because of faith? Why is that distinction crucial?

5. What should be the object of our faith? What do we normally put our trust in?

6. How can God be both just and the one who justifies? How does the cross answer this dilemma?

7. How do we tend to forget God’s justice? How do we forget his justification? How does that effect our feelings, outlook and actions?

8. Why does this exclude boasting? What are the things we tend to boast about? What is boasting? What do we achieve through our boasting? How does the gospel replace boasting?

9. How do we change the law to meet our requirements? How do we allow the law to condemn and crush us? What is it’s proper place in the Christian life?

Welcome, Guests! We are excited you're here with us today. We hope that you were warmly welcomed and would love for you to be a part of Grace. Please take a moment to fill out the visitor information on the back of the bulletin, tear it off and drop it in the offering plate or give it on to an usher.

• Worldview & Culture

Rob Bittick

For Grace Presbyterian to be a gospel-centered church, are we to avoid or embrace our culture? Join us as we explore four ways that churches throughout history have approached the challenge, informed by various prophetic views, and then weigh these approaches in the light of scripture. Our goal is to envision how the Church can engage surrounding culture with the hope of the gospel.

• Lord, I Can't Do This Alone (A Study in Gospel & Community)

Andy Yung

In an individualistic society where vulnerability, trust, commitment and concern are scarce, why unite with people who are different from ourselves? Herein lies the mystery of the Community of Faith—God chooses to knit us together to advance His Kingdom on Earth. Come explore the Gospel and how "community" is integral to our discipleship and growth in Christ.

Banners Explained: The banner on the right is inscribed with the Latin phrase “Ego sum vitis vera” meaning “I am the true vine”, an expression Jesus used to describe himself in John 15:1. The grapevines that make up the cross symbolize abundance and fruitfulness; Jesus is the only way to a truly fruitful life. The “IHS” in the center of the cross is an ancient monogram for Jesus.

The banner on the left is inscribed with the Latin phrase “ In cruce salus” meaning “In the cross is salvation”. Passion flowers symbolize the suffering and death of Christ, and forming a circle in the center is a crown of thorns which Jesus wore on the cross. In the center are the Greek letters alpha and omega, the first and last letters of the alphabet. In Revelation 21:6, Jesus describes himself as the Alpha and the Omega – the Beginning and the End.
