Reflections

The human heart is a factory of idols...Everyone of us is, from his mother's womb, expert in inventing idols.

- John Calvin
Institutes of the Christian Religion

An idol is something within creation that is inflated to function as God. All sorts of things are potential idols, depending only on our attitudes and actions toward them...Idolatry may not involve explicit denials of God's existence or character. It may well come in the form of an over-attachment to something that is, in itself perfectly good...An idol can be a physical object, a property, a person, an activity, a role, an institution, a hope, an image, an idea, a pleasure, a hero - anything that can substitute for God.

- Richard Keyes
The Idol Factory

The evil in our desire typically does not lie in what we want, but that we want it too much.

- John Calvin
Institutes of the Christian Religion

...since our hearts are made to find their end in God, we will experience a besetting anxiety and restlessness when we try to love substitutes. To be human is to have a heart. You can't not love. So the question isn't whether you will love something as ultimate; the question is what you will love as ultimate. And you are what you love.

- James K.A. Smith
You Are What You Love: The Spiritual Power of Habit

Wherever you are most tired, look closely and you'll likely find self-justification at work, the drive to validate your existence - to assert your lovability - via adherence to some standard of enoughness, be it behavioral or conceptual, given or inherited.

- David Zahl

Call to Worship

Isaiah 55:1-3

Come, all you who are thirsty,
    come to the waters;
and you who have no money,
    come, buy and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk
    without money and without cost.
2 Why spend money on what is not bread,
    and your labor on what does not satisfy?
Listen, listen to me, and eat what is good,
    and you will delight in the richest of fare.
3 Give ear and come to me;
    listen, that you may live.
I will make an everlasting covenant with you,
    my faithful love promised to David.

Scripture Reading

Matthew 6:19-21

Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moths and vermin destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. 20 But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moths and vermin do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. 21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Confession of Sin

Minister & People:

Gracious Lord Jesus, we confess that we have long been loving treasures that have nothing to do with You or Your kingdom. We love our things, our money, jobs, friends, families, bodies, careers, gifts, and reputations. We find our satisfaction in these things and are jealous of those who have what we do not. We treasure approval, our performance, and the praise of those around us. In doing so we have built our identities on a foundation made of sand. We have even sought to lay up treasures in heaven through our good behavior, thinking we could buy Your love and acceptance through our efforts.

Though we daily value other things ahead of you, You were put to death so that we, the ones who crucified You, might become Your treasure. Break in and steal our idol-worshiping hearts. Turn our hearts away from ourselves and the things that occupy our love, and turn them toward You and the riches You have given us in your life, death, and resurrection. Forgive us, heal us, and transform us by your gospel.

Private Confession and Reflection

Words of Encouragement

Colossians 2:13-15

When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins, 14 having canceled the charge of our legal indebtedness, which stood against us and condemned us; he has taken it away, nailing it to the cross. 15 And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross.

Song of Thanksgiving

A Debtor to Mercy Alone

Peace of God and Announcements

Minister: The peace of the Lord be with you!

People: And also with you.

If parents prefer, children 4 years old – 2nd grade are invited to attend Children's Church in the Education Building at this time.

The Prayers of the People (concluded with the Lord's prayer)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen!

The Offering

The offering is a way for members and friends of Grace Church to support the church's mission and ministry. If you are our guest today, please feel under no compulsion to give.

Scripture Reading

Luke 18:18-30

A certain ruler asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

19 "Why do you call me good?" Jesus answered. "No one is good—except God alone. 20 You know the commandments: 'You shall not commit adultery, you shall not murder, you shall not steal, you shall not give false testimony, honor your father and mother.'"

21 "All these I have kept since I was a boy," he said.

22 When Jesus heard this, he said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me."

23 When he heard this, he became very sad, because he was very wealthy. 24 Jesus looked at him and said, "How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God! 25 Indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God."

26 Those who heard this asked, "Who then can be saved?"

27 Jesus replied, "What is impossible with man is possible with God."

28 Peter said to him, "We have left all we had to follow you!"

29 "Truly I tell you," Jesus said to them, "no one who has left home or wife or brothers or sisters or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God 30 will fail to receive many times as much in this age, and in the age to come eternal life."

COMMUNION

Guidelines for Reception of Communion

Communion is a family meal for Christians. We welcome all committed followers of Jesus Christ to partake of this sacrament: those who are baptized members of a congregation which proclaims the gospel, who are at peace with God and with their neighbor, and who seek strength to live more faithfully for Christ. If you are not a Christian, or if you are not prepared to share in this meal, we encourage you to spend this time in prayer using the prayers that follow as guidelines. We hope that this time is helpful as you consider your relationship with Jesus Christ, and with his people, the church.

The Great Thanksgiving

Minister: Therefore, lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up to the Lord!

Minister: Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise!

Song of Communion

Come Weary Souls

Prayer of Consecration and the Words of Institution

Prayer for those not communing:

Prayer for Covenant Children (Not Yet Confirmed)

Lord Jesus, thank you for placing me inside your family, the church. Help me more and more to know you, to love you, and to follow you as your faithful disciple. Amen.

Prayer for Those Searching for Truth

Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth and the life. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open to me the reality of who you are. Grant that I might be undaunted by the cost of following you, as I consider the reasons for doing so. Give me an understanding of you that is coherent, convincing, and that leads to the life that you promise. Amen.

Prayer of Belief

Lord Jesus, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but, through you, I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared to hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross and offering forgiveness and new life. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior. Amen.

Prayer for Those Struggling with Sin

Lord Jesus, grant that I may see in you the fulfillment of all my needs, and may turn from every false satisfaction to feed on you, the true and living bread. Enable me to lay aside the sin that clings so closely, and run with perseverance the race set before me, looking only to you, the author and finisher of my faith. Amen.

Prayer of Commitment

Lord Jesus, you have called us to follow you in baptism and in a life of committed discipleship in your church. Grant that I may take the necessary steps to be one with your people, and live in the fullness of your Spirit. Amen.

Distribution of the Bread and the Cup

Grace Presbyterian uses wine in the celebration of Holy Communion. If you prefer non-alcoholic grape juice, please take a cup from the outer circle of the tray. Gluten-free wafers are provided in cups in the center of the cup trays. Please hold the elements until all have received so we can celebrate this meal together.

Song of Commitment

Jesus, I My Cross Have Taken

Benediction<sup>2</sup>

Colossians 2:6-7

So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.

Dismissal

Minister: Now, let us go forth to serve this community and the world as those who love our Lord Jesus Christ.

ALL: Thanks be to God!

<sup>2</sup> The benediction is much more than a wish or even a prayer. It is a renewed ordination of the people of God to their service to each other, to their community and the world. God declares his own favor toward his people.

The pastoral staff and other church leaders are available following the service to pray with you or to answer your questions about the Christian faith or Grace Church.

COMMUNITY GROUP QUESTIONS

1. How deep is your understanding of the commandments? Do you think of them as commands from God that require purity of your words and thoughts as well as your actions? It might be helpful here to go through the second table of the law, commandment by commandment, asking your own heart this question.
2. Have you found this story somewhat confusing, or are you troubled by the words that Jesus says to this man? Discuss.
3. Jesus asks a very challenging question: "What governs the choices that we make?" Is it our present comfort, security, and happiness, or is it the life to come? Are we saving up for ourselves treasures in heaven, or merely spending and saving treasures on this earth?
4. Calvin said that our hearts are idol factories. What about the idols of your heart? If you were to meet Jesus today, what question or challenge might he bring to you that would send you away sorrowful? Have you ever forsaken any idol to follow Jesus?
5. Do you understand that each one of these questions is so difficult that you are required to answer, "Lord, this is impossible for me to do -- you must change my heart, or else I will die without ever knowing or serving you! I cannot save myself"?
6. What is your response to the point about earning the right to ask people penetrating questions?
7. Do you understand that saving people is impossible for you? It is, of course, possible for God. Discuss.

Welcome, Guests! We are excited you're here with us today. We hope that you were warmly welcomed and would love for you to be a part of Grace. Please take a moment to fill out the visitor information on the back of the bulletin, tear it off and drop it in the offering plate or give it on to an usher.

Parents of Infants - Three-Yr Olds: Our nursery and early-childhood classes provide a warm, nurturing, and well-supervised environment. Our workers welcome the opportunity to love your child! When using the nursery, please check in and label all items (bags, cups, etc.) with your child's name. If you need assistance or have any questions about the Nursery, please contact our Nursery Coordinator, Kate Weimar, at mothersdayout@gracewoodlands.org.

Cry Room: A cry room is available for the comfort of our new parents in order to ensure that everyone enjoys our services. It is located in the back of the sanctuary and it is well equipped (comfortable rockers, changing table, etc.) but if you are in need of anything, one of our ushers will be glad to assist.

- Stories of Mercy, Old and New Damon Webster
Throughout the Bible, many called God merciful. We hear beautiful language such as His mercies are new every morning, and that He is slow to anger. We see clear pictures of Jesus's mercy throughout the gospel. Come explore biblical stories of mercy and modern examples inspired from that mercy. Take these stories that made Jesus more believable and beautiful to the people that experienced them and, hopefully, He will become more believable and beautiful to you as well.
- The Whole of Our Holiness: A Study in Sanctification Andy Yung
Be good. Be like Jesus. Be disciplined. Perhaps you have heard statements like these as a way of encouraging a life of holiness. However, when we try to put these statements into practice, we waver between pride in the things we accomplished for God yesterday, and despair that we didn't measure up to God's standard today. What is the role of grace in our daily lives, and do we truly believe that Jesus is the author and finisher of our salvation? Join us as we explore this topic together.
- Intro to Grace Presbyterian David Wilcher
Whether you are on the fast track toward membership or the walking path toward learning more about us, this introductory class about Grace Presbyterian Church is for you! This is a great chance to better understand the mission and ministry of this church, as well as to interrogate the pastor with any questions you might have.
- Community Groups: To be part of the church is to be part of a community. Community is where we connect, build relationships, study, and serve together. - New Volunteer Opportunity with ESL Ministry. There is an urgent need for a setup crew of 2 or 3 people to assist weekly in rearranging furniture in preparation for Tuesday night English as a Second Language (ESL) classes. Some moderate lifting is required. Ideally this could be done at 5:30 pm on Tuesdays, but anytime after 2 pm on Mondays would be feasible. It should only take about 30-40 minutes once a routine is developed. If enough volunteers are available, they could alternate weeks as desired. If you are interested in helping with this or any other ESL Ministry opportunity, please email esl@gracewoodlands.org or talk with Bailey Patel or John Zeigler.

Banners Explained: In Christian tradition, green came to symbolize the life of the church following Pentecost, as well as symbolizing the hope of new life in the resurrection. This color indicates ordinary time, which is the time between the major Christian Seasons.

The banner on the right is inscribed with the Latin phrase “ In cruce salus” meaning “In the cross is salvation". Passion flowers symbolize the suffering and death of Christ, and forming a circle in the center is a crown of thorns which Jesus wore on the cross. In the center are the Greek letters alpha and omega, the first and last letters of the alphabet. In Revelation 21:6, Jesus describes himself as the Alpha and the Omega – the Beginning and the End.

The banner on the left is inscribed with the Latin phrase “Ego sum vitis vera” meaning “I am the true vine”, an expression Jesus used to describe himself in John 15:1. The grapevines that make up the cross symbolize abundance and fruitfulness; Jesus is the only way to a truly fruitful life. The “IHS” in the center of the cross is an ancient monogram for Jesus.
