Reflections

Grace and mercy are a far more effective means of creating love and devotion than condemnation. A new affection for Christ has a much greater power to drive out our sin and bring lasting repentance than any sermon on moral improvement, or any program for straightening out one's life.

— Jerram Barrs
Learning Evangelism From Jesus

This is why there's a party going on: all heaven is having a party, the angels are joining in, and if we don't have one as well we'll be out of tune with God's reality.

— Tom Wright
Luke for Everyone

Jesus's teaching consistently attracted the irreligious while offending the Bible-believing, religious people of his day. However, in the main, our churches today do not have this effect...That can only mean one thing. If the preaching of our ministers and the practice of our parishioners do not have the same effect on people that Jesus had, then we must not be declaring the same message that Jesus did.

— Tim Keller
Prodigal God

The closer we are to Jesus, the further we will be from sin. Likewise, the closer we are to Jesus, the closer we will be to sinners. So close that Pharisee types will assume we are guilty simply by virtue of our associations.

Call to Worship

Psalm 100:1-3

Leader: Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth.
Worship the LORD with gladness;
come before him with joyful songs.

*All: Know that the LORD is God.
It is he who made us, and we are his;
we are his people the sheep of his pasture.*

Renewal

Scripture Reading

Isaiah 53:6

We all, like sheep, have gone astray,
each of us has turned to our own way;
And the LORD has laid on him
the iniquity of us all.

Confession of Sin

*Minister &
People:*

Gracious Father, we are left uncomfortably exposed by your Word. We have wandered far from you in thought, word, and deed. We love ourselves and our tribes, and we vilify those that think differently from us, both inside and outside of your church. We trust our judgment more than you. We do what we want and seek you to affirm our wandering hearts. Forgive us. We do not love you and our neighbors as you call us to. Help us to reflect your character of patience, mercy, compassion, forgiveness, holiness, love, and goodness in every interaction we have because we know Jesus' love and sacrifice. Help us to be ruled by grace and your gospel. Fulfill your law of love in us so we might genuinely love and serve those around us. We come boldly to you because you abandoned your Son so that we could be forgiven, be transformed, and know your embrace.

Private Confession and Reflection

Words of Encouragement

Titus 3:3-7

At one time we too were foolish, disobedient, deceived and enslaved by all kinds of passions and pleasures. We lived in malice and envy, being hated and hating one another. But when the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life.

Jesus, What Friend for Sinners

Peace of God and Announcements

Minister: The peace of the Lord be with you!

People: And also with you.

If parents prefer, children 4 years old – 2nd grade are invited to attend Children’s Church in the Education Building at this time.

The Prayers of the People (concluded with the Lord’s prayer)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen!

Commitment

The Offering

The offering is a way for members and friends of Grace Church to support the church's mission and ministry. If you are our guest today, please feel under no compulsion to give.

Scripture Reading

Luke 15:1-10

Now the tax collectors and sinners were all gathering around to hear Jesus. 2 But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law muttered, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them."

3 Then Jesus told them this parable: 4 "Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Doesn't he leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it? 5 And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders 6 and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbors together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.' 7 I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.

8 "Or suppose a woman has ten silver coins and loses one. Doesn't she light a lamp, sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it? 9 And when she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbors together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost coin.' 10 In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

COMMUNION

Guidelines for Reception of Communion

Communion is a family meal for Christians. We welcome all committed followers of Jesus Christ to partake of this sacrament: those who are baptized members of a congregation which proclaims the gospel, who are at peace with God and with their neighbor, and who seek strength to live more faithfully for Christ. If you are not a Christian, or if you are not prepared to share in this meal, we encourage you to spend this time in prayer using the prayers that follow as guidelines. We hope that this time is helpful as you consider your relationship with Jesus Christ, and with his people, the church.

The Great Thanksgiving

Minister: Therefore, lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them up to the Lord!
Minister: Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.
People: It is right to give him thanks and praise!

Song of Communion

Here In This Place

Prayer of Consecration and the Words of Institution

Prayer for those not communing:

Prayer for Covenant Children (Not Yet Confirmed)

Lord Jesus, thank you for placing me inside your family, the church. Help me more and more to know you, to love you, and to follow you as your faithful disciple. Amen.

Prayer for Those Searching for Truth

Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth and the life. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open to me the reality of who you are. Grant that I might be undaunted by the cost of following you, as I consider the reasons for doing so. Give me an understanding of you that is coherent, convincing, and that leads to the life that you promise. Amen.

Prayer of Belief

Lord Jesus, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but, through you, I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared to hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross and offering forgiveness and new life. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior. Amen.

Prayer for Those Struggling with Sin

Lord Jesus, grant that I may see in you the fulfillment of all my needs, and may turn from every false satisfaction to feed on you, the true and living bread. Enable me to lay aside the sin that clings so closely, and run with perseverance the race set before me, looking only to you, the author and finisher of my faith. Amen.

Prayer of Commitment

Lord Jesus, you have called us to follow you in baptism and in a life of committed discipleship in your church. Grant that I may take the necessary steps to be one with your people, and live in the fullness of your Spirit. Amen.

Distribution of the Bread and the Cup

Grace Presbyterian uses wine in the celebration of Holy Communion. If you prefer non-alcoholic grape juice, please take a cup from the outer circle of the tray. Gluten-free wafers are provided in cups in the center of the cup trays. Please hold the elements until all have received so we can celebrate this meal together.

Benediction²

2 Thessalonians 3:16,18

Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with all of you...The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

Dismissal

Minister: Now, let us go forth to serve this community and the world as those who love our Lord Jesus Christ.

ALL: Thanks be to God!

The pastoral staff and other church leaders are available following the service to pray with you or to answer your questions about the Christian faith or Grace Church.

² The benediction is much more than a wish or even a prayer. It is a renewed ordination of the people of God to their service to each other, to their community and the world. God declares his own favor toward his people.

COMMUNITY GROUP QUESTIONS

1. Are you known for being someone that wants to celebrate? Why or why not? Are you quick to celebrate when sinners are found or not? Why or why not?
2. What are the ways you identify with the tax collectors and sinners? What are the ways you identify with the scribes and Pharisees? What are the ways the gospel calls you to respond out of both mindsets?
3. Do you find these two parables comforting or challenging? Discuss.
4. Do you believe that heaven is one constant party, celebrating the finding of lost sinners and their repentance? If heaven is celebrating, how should we be participating?
5. Are there people you are tempted to categorize and so dismiss as “sinners”? How does Jesus and his gospel change the way we are to live and act and think about those people?
6. Does joy and a celebratory heart characterize us as a church? In what ways do we need to repent? How can we better reflect Jesus and his kingdom heart and vision?

Welcome, Guests! We are excited you're here with us today. We hope that you were warmly welcomed and would love for you to be a part of Grace. Please take a moment to fill out the visitor information on the back of the bulletin, tear it off and drop it in the offering plate or give it on to an usher.

• Who is Jesus? Controversies and Creeds

David Moncla

"Who do you say that I am?" That was the question Jesus asked his followers and the answer is the key to the Gospel. "Who is Jesus?" was the most important issue confronted by the early church as it sought to develop definitive statements of faith or creeds in response to controversies and heresies. The church battles with the same errors, in different forms, today. The struggle is ongoing, but we are commanded by Scripture in Jude 3 to be diligent to "earnestly contend for the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints."

• The Gospel According to Moses

Sunny Yung

Where did we come from? What's our purpose? Where are we going? These are questions the ancient Israelite's had and they're still relevant today. Come explore the first five books of the Bible and learn about our place in God's unfolding story of mercy and grace.

Community Groups: To be part of the church is to be part of a community. Community is where we connect, build relationships, study, and serve together. Banners Explained: In Christian tradition, green came to symbolize the life of the church following Pentecost, as well as symbolizing the hope of new life in the resurrection. This color indicates ordinary time, which is the time between the major Christian Seasons.

The banner on the right is inscribed with the Latin phrase “ In cruce salus” meaning “In the cross is salvation". Passion flowers symbolize the suffering and death of Christ, and forming a circle in the center is a crown of thorns which Jesus wore on the cross. In the center are the Greek letters alpha and omega, the first and last letters of the alphabet. In Revelation 21:6, Jesus describes himself as the Alpha and the Omega – the Beginning and the End.

The banner on the left is inscribed with the Latin phrase “Ego sum vitis vera” meaning “I am the true vine”, an expression Jesus used to describe himself in John 15:1. The grapevines that make up the cross symbolize abundance and fruitfulness; Jesus is the only way to a truly fruitful life. The “IHS” in the center of the cross is an ancient monogram for Jesus.

Prayer of Belief...

Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but through you, I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope.
